WEXFORD COUNTY PROBATE COURT

437 E. Division St.
Cadillac, MI 49601

231.779.9510
Fax: 231.779.9485

Hours: Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 5:00pm.

Purpose: The Probate Court in Wexford County is established under provisions found in the Michigan Constitution that require a Probate Court in each county of the state. The function and jurisdiction of the Court is established statutes which implement this Constitutional requirement. Probate Courts are given jurisdiction over many proceedings dealing with the health, well-being and property of Michigan residents, but the most common proceedings are: Guardianships for Minors and Adults; Conservatorships and Protective Proceedings for Incapacitated Individuals and minors; Guardianships for Developmentally Disabled Adults; Administration of Decedent Estates; Administration of Trusts; Legal proceedings seeking Involuntary Mental Health Treatment

- People seeking access to the Court processes are generally assisted by attorneys admitted to practice law in the State of Michigan. Also, people seeking to handle their own legal cases should be aware that the law does not allow Court staff to give them legal advice; in Probate Court in particular there is a specific statute that disallows Court staff from giving legal advice or from filling out documents for people (MCL 700.1211) Subject to that understanding, the Probate Court has available to the public, informational materials about court procedures generally, and forms and instruction packets for some types of guardianship and conservatorship filings. Court staff can also make referrals to other agencies that may assist people who seek answers to problems that must be addressed through legal action.
- The Court offers a variety of remedial, counseling and supervisory programs with respect to individuals over which it acquires jurisdiction, and may impose sanctions, depending on the circumstances of each case.
