TIPS FOR REPRESENTING YOURSELF IN COURT

There is the old adage that describes a person who represents him or herself in court as "having a fool for a client."

People who represent themselves in a court proceeding are Pro Se or In Pro Per parties. "Pro se" or "In Pro Per" is a Latin term meaning "for oneself."

Even for the best prepared pro se litigant, court proceedings can be intimidating. Whether it is due to lack of funds or choice, a self-represented person can do several things to minimize feeling foolish in court.

- Find out what type of court hearing will be held. Is it an informal pretrial discussion or a formal court hearing or trial?
- Observe a similar court proceeding before your court.
- Don't miss your court date. Double-check the date and time.
- Allow plenty of time to get to court. You will need to park, go through security and find your courtroom.
- Arrive at the courtroom 15 minutes early.
- Come prepared and organized.
- Bring an outline of what you plan to say.
- Prepare a short statement of what you want and why.
- Bring your witnesses with you to court. Letters hardly ever suffice.
- Witnesses cannot appear by telephone without advance approval of the court.
- Write out questions for your witnesses.
- Ask your witnesses the questions before your court date.
- Bring three copies of all documents or exhibits.

- Address the judge or referee as "Your Honor."
- Bring paper and pen so you can take notes of what other witnesses say.
- Take notes.
- Dress nicely.
- Do not bring children to court unless specifically required by the court.
- Leave the drama at home. Do not be hostile or rude, and do not interrupt.
- Before you leave court make sure you know what will happen next.
- Ask questions if you are unclear of who will prepare the court order.

Be aware that court procedures and the Rules of Evidence will be followed. Specific statutes will govern the outcome. Court staff cannot give you any legal advice. You will be best served if you meet with a lawyer to discuss your case in advance, even if the lawyer does not represent you in court.

Don't be afraid to ask attorneys if they offer sliding scale fees or have payment plans. Most attorneys volunteer a number of hours each year in Pro Bono services, another Latin phrase meaning "for the public good."
