WEXFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE is officially recruiting up to 2 candidates to send to the Winter 2023 Police Academy and, upon successful completion of the academy, hire as full-time Sheriff's Deputies. The Sheriff's Office wishes to invest in the future of deserving candidates by fully sponsoring them as cadets in the Police Academy and offering them a career opportunity. Individuals sought must be high-school graduates or equivalent, have a valid driver's license, must pass criminal background check, solid work ethic, proper communication and writing skills, demonstrated integrity, and have a passion for service and care for the community. Upon selection and signing of the sponsorship agreement, cadets will be paid while attending the academy and receive full benefits, and the cost of tuition, books, and required test fees will be covered in full. Upon successful completion of the academy and receiving MCOLES certification, the cadets will be transitioned to full-time employees with the Wexford County Sheriff's Office as Sheriff's Deputies. More information can be obtained at www.wexfordcounty.org or from the Wexford County Human Resources Office, 437 E. Division Street, Cadillac, MI 49601. Job-related questions can be answered by calling the Wexford County Sheriff's Office at 231-779-9216. Application, cover letter, and resume are due to the HR Office by 4:00 PM on Thursday, November 10, 2022.
